Journal of the Daily Proceedings. 1914.

FIRST DAY.

The Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, commenced its One Hundred and Thirtieth Session in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Baltimore, Maryland, Wednesday, March 25th, 1914, at 9 o'clock A. M.

Bishop Collins Denny, President of the Conference, in the Chair.
Conference united in singing Hymn No. 547:

"Children of the heavenly King,
As we journey let us sing."

The Bishop led in prayer.

The Bishop read as a lesson the 11th Chapter of Hebrews, and impressively addressed the Conference.

THE ROLL was called by the Secretary of the last Conference, and 159 Clerical and 19 Lay Members answered to their names. (See Roll.)

E. V. Regester was elected Secretary, and upon his nomination J. Harry Smith, W. H. Best, C. L. De Long, J. J. Rives, W. L. Smith and G. D. Kidner were elected Assistant Secretaries.

THE BAR of the Conference was fixed at a line running across the church from the second windows from the doors.

THE HOUR of meeting was fixed at 9 A. M., and of adjournment at 12 M.

Upon motion, the time of adjournment was reconsidered and fixed at 12.30 P. M.

COMMITTEES—The nominations of the Presiding Elders for the Committees were presented and read, and they were elected. (See List.)

Upon the nomination of the Presiding Elder of the Roanoke District, the vacancy in the Committee on Memoirs, occasioned by the death of A. M. Cackley, was filled by the election of J. Howard Wells.

Upon motion, a Committee on Memorials to the General Conference, consisting of one clerical member from each Presiding Elder's District and four lay members selected from the Conference at large, to be appointed by the Chair, was ordered.

Upon motion, H. P. Baker was appointed to canvass for the Conference Minutes.

COMMUNICATIONS were received and referred, as follows:

From the General Board of Church Extension, to the Conference Board of Church Extension; General Board of Education, to the Conference Board of Education; Smith and Lamar, Agents to the Committee on Publishing Interests; Trustees of the M. E. Church, South, to the Joint Board of Finance.

PRESIDING ELDERS—M. D. Mitchell, of the Baltimore District; E. V. Regester, of the Washington District; D. H. Kern, of the Alexandria District; T. J. Lambert, of the Winchester District; B. W. Bond, of the Rockingham District; G. D. White, of the Roanoke District; J. A. Anderson, of the Lewisburg District; H. A. Brown, of the Moorefield District; represented the condition of their several Districts and their characters were examined and passed.

The Secretary presented the papers in the case of W. H. H. Joyce, which had been remanded by the Committee on Appeals, and the Bishop appointed H. H. Sherman, R. L. Fultz and H. L. Hout a Committee of Investigation in the case.

QUESTION SIX of the General Minutes was called, viz: Who are received by transfer from other Conferences?

The Bishop announced the transfer of: John B. Winn, from the Virginia Conference; Edward K. Hardin, from the South Carolina Conference; William C. Sponaugle, from the Florida Conference; James P. Atkins, from the Western Virginia Conference.

The Annual Report of the Board of Directors of the Southern Methodist Publishing Company was presented and read, and referred to the Committee on Publishing Interests.

A Communication from F. J. Prettyman, of the Committee on the Randolph-Macon matter, together with the decision of the Court in the case, was presented and read, and referred to the Board of Education.

INTRODUCTIONS—Rev. A. J. Lamar, D. D., one of the Publishing Agents; J. S. Hunter, representing the Richmond Branch of the Publishing House; Rev. L. T. Wideman, D. D., Agent of the Maryland Bible Society; were introduced and addressed the Conference.

Rev. F. S. Parker, D. D., Epworth League Secretary; Rev. E. B. Chappell, D. D., Sunday School Editor; Rev. W. Asbury Christian, of the Virginia Conference; Rev. Mr. Dogan, of the Fulton Ave. Baptist Church, Baltimore; Rev. Lawrenson Correll, of the New Jersey Conference of the M. E. Church; Rev. Mr. Wood, of the Colored M. E. Church; were introduced to the Conference.

The Bishop announced the following Committee on Memorials to the General Conference: F. J. Prettyman, H. M. Canter, J. C. Copenhaver, P. W. Jeffries, J. W. Duffey, J. B. Winn, L. S. Rudasill, J. H. Balthis, F. B. Thomas, A. E. Huddlestun, M. L. Walton, P. V. D. Conway.

QUESTION TWENTY-TWO of the General Minutes was resumed:

The characters of German O. Homan, John S. Engle, Howard A. Murrill, were examined and passed, and their names were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for a supernumerary relation.

REPORT NO. 2—BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Your Board of Missions, sensible of its responsibility for the intelligent and equitable distribution of the fund committed to it, after much thought and painstaking care, adopted a policy, the contents of which have been published to this Conference. It is due all concerned to say that this earnest effort of the Board thus to efficiently discharge its duty has met with encouraging response.

The Presiding Elders have co-operated in word and act by bringing the reasonable requests of the Board before the official representatives of the several Mission charges. One Presiding Elder made special effort to secure the data by March 1st. Likewise, a number of Mission charges evidenced their appreciation of our work by promising to reduce the amount of their requests, and in some instances discontinuing requests.

The pastors on Mission Charges, with few exceptions, made full and faithful reports on the items of information requested by the Board. Only twelve of the eighty missionary pastors failed to return answers to the questions asked. These reports constitute a large volume of important information that is greatly needed in the just administration of our work.

That there may be an equitable basis for the adjustment of our fund, it is obviously important that Quarterly Conferences making requests of the Board indicate the amounts that will likely be paid the succeeding Conference year.

That men on Mission Charges may receive payments quarterly, all our pastors are requested to send all funds for Conference Missions to the Treasurer of this Board as soon as such funds are collected. It is purposed to pay 20 per cent. quarterly of the allowance during the first three quarters, reserving 40 per cent. for the last quarter for final adjustment.

The aforesaid policy of the Board will not be operative in all particulars for the coming Conference year, owing to the urgent requests made of the Board for the year, by the Bishop and presiding elders for amounts that necessitate an assessment of $25,000 which will enable us to pay in full if the assessment is paid in full.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

It is gratifying to learn through the report from our General Secretary that our work in the Foreign field has gone forward notwithstanding unfavorable circumstances that in some instances have arisen. Three missionaries and their wives are now on the Congo as our representatives in Africa. The enlarging field of opportunity for our work, together with the imperative terms of the Great Commission of our Lord, demand our very best in offerings service and prayer.

HOME MISSIONS.

While we are greatly pleased with the interest that is bringing forth such splendid fruit on the Foreign Missionary assessment and would urge that our present high standard be maintained, we would also urge that not less interest be shown in the assessment for Home Missions. It is shown by reports that many charges, some of which are beneficiaries of this Board, pay in full and overpay on the Foreign assessment, and fail to pay in full the Home assessment.

THE EVERY MEMBER CANVASS AND SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Every Member Canvass has become an important factor in meeting our Missionary obligations and opportunities. It is a disciplinary requirement. Moreover, 54 organizations in the United States and Canada have adopted it with effectual results. It is greatly desired that the assessments for Missions be met through the Every Member Canvass, leaving the Sunday Schools free to raise Specials.

WOMAN'S WORK.

We are greatly gratified with the report received from our Woman's Work. Its nature and results commend it to the sympathy and support of all our pastors.

CONFERENCE MISSIONARY SECRETARY.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. D. L. Blakemore as Conference Missionary Secretary in connection with his regular pastoral work.

LAY LEADER.

We recommend Judge E. D. Newman as Conference Lay Leader.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

We recommend that the Committee on Evangelism be composed of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions.

MISSIONARY ANNIVERSARY.

We recommend that Friday night of the next Conference Session be the time for holding the Missionary Anniversary.

H. M. CANTER, Secretary.

CARLTON D. HARRIS, President.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

RANDOLPH-MACON SYSTEM.

All of the schools of the Randolph-Macon System have submitted brief reports which show a general condition of prosperity. From these reports we gather the following statistics:

Randolph-Macon College, at Ashland, Va., has property valued at $155,000.00, with 22 officers and teachers, 186 students, and endowment of $338,000.00. This shows an increase of 16 students over last year, also an increase in the endowment fund. The subscription for $100,000, which the General Education Board of New York required as a prerequisite for giving the College $50,000.00, has been paid over and some of the other subscriptions have been paid in.

The College maintains its high standard in Christian Education.

Randolph-Macon Woman's College, at Lynchburg, Va., reports value of property, $421,653.00; number of professors, 44; productive endowment, $382,658.00; number of students, 584.

It continues to be numbered as one of the first-class Colleges for the higher education of women, and affords rare opportunities for intellectual culture, under best social and religious influences.

Randolph-Macon Institute, at Danville, Va., reports value of property $115,000.00; no endowment; teachers and officers, 23; pupils, 229.

Randolph-Macon Academy, at Bedford, Va., reports value of property $110,000.00; professors and officers, 13; pupils, 207. No endowment; bonded indebtedness reduced to $8,000.00.

Randolph-Macon Academy, at Front Royal, Va., reports value of property $100,000.00; professors, 8; pupils, 150. No endowment.

This constitutes a great system for education, over $900,000.00 in value of property, 123 officers and teachers, 1,346 pupils, with an endowment of over $720,000.00.

They are all of exceptionally high character in their respective classes and are each worthy of our most cordial support.

During the year a vacancy which occurred in the office of President of the Woman's College by the lamentable death of Dr. W. W. Smith, that great educator, who stood majestic among his peers, of the most distinguished and successful leaders in education in his generation, has been filled by the election of Dr. W. A. Webb, of Central College of Missouri, who gives promise by his successful past, a demonstration of fitness for the duties of the responsible position, to be a worthy successor of Dr. Smith.

We urge our people to send their children to these schools, and to do a kindness to their friends by recommending them to their friends. They will suffer nothing by comparison with other schools.

We urge the Trustees and Faculty to enlarge and strengthen the course in Biblical Literature, especially along the lines of the Conference Course of Study, at the earliest possible date, so that the ministerial students, nine-tenths of whom do not obtain special theological training elsewhere, may have an opportunity for more thorough equipment for the important work of the Christian ministry.

As to the report made by Rev. F. J. Prettyman in relation to the litigation concerning the action and powers of the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College, accompanied by a copy of the opinion of the Court, referred to us, we report that, as there has doubtless been entered in the cause a decree based on the conclusion of the Court, expressed in the written opinion, there seems to be nothing further for the consideration of the Conference, and we recommend that the copy of the opinion be preserved among the archives and the expenses, reported to be $100.00, be paid by the Joint Board of Finance out of the funds of the Conference.

SOUTHERN SEMINARY SYSTEM.

We recommend to the patronage of our people the institutions which constitute the Southern Seminary System. We are informed that the educational work done by them is thorough, and their system of administration modern and intelligent. The moral and spiritual influences are such as Christian parents wish thrown around their children.

The Southern Seminary, at Buena Vista, Virginia, a school for girls and young women, is housed in a most comfortable building, well furnished and equipped. Its report shows property valued at $75,000.00, sixteen teachers, and one hundred and twenty pupils. The Rev. E. H. Rowe is the resident principal.

The Alleghany Collegiate Institute, a training school, located at Alderson, W. Va., has property valued at $13,000.00, with six professors and eighty-two pupils.

Rev. J. S. Engle, of our Conference, has been the resident principal for the last two sessions.

The system of military drill is in use here, and is regarded by the management as of great value in the development of physical vigor and habits of precision and promptness among the students. We understand that this is the only military school, with perhaps one exception, affiliated with our Church. In view of the tendency of our boys toward military schools, we think it wise that the management of this system has provided us with one such among our Methodist schools.

The physical conditions of the school property are only fairly good, while the health of the student body is excellent.

We recommend the Revs. J. H. Wells, D. M. Brown and W. F. Locke, or their successors, be appointed a visiting committee for the Southern Seminary, and that Revs. F. A. Tyler, J. Herbert Bean and W. M. Compton, or their successors, be appointed a visiting committee for the A. C. I., the expenses of said committees to be paid by the respective institutions.

REPORT OF SECRETARY-TREASURER.

The books and vouchers of Dr. H. P. Hamill, Secretary-Treasurer, have been examined and found correct. The total receipts for Ministerial Supply and Training were $594.16; disbursements, $593.43; leaving a balance in hand of $0.73.

The amount received on the assessment for Randolph-Macon College is $3,218.00, and for Educational Extension $2,344.00, which amounts have been applied to their respective purposes, as shown by the vouchers for same.

APPOINTMENTS RECOMMENDED.

We recommend the re-election of Dr. H. P. Hamill, our present Secretary-Treasurer, and the appointment of Rev. J. A. Kern, D. D., as professor in Vanderbilt University; W. W. Beasley as student in Randolph-Macon College, and J. Chester Crothers for an appointment to attend school.

Judge E. D. Newman, H. P. Hamill and H. H. Sherman, the Committee on Ministerial Supply and Training, is continued with the usual duties.

A committee consisting of Judge E. D. Newman, Ed. S. Conrad and C. M. Armstrong is appointed to have the Board of Education incorporated at as early a day as practicable.

ASSESSMENTS.

We recommend an assessment of $6,000.00 for Randolph-Macon College and $500.00 for Ministerial Supply and Training and that proceeds be divided pro rata. For Educational Extension we recommend an assessment of $3,173.00, being the amount apportioned to this Conference by the General Board of Education.

J. H. BALTHIS, Secretary.

H. H. SHERMAN, Chairman.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Your Sunday School Board reports as follows:

Owing to the fact that all the other Conferences of our Church meet at dates several months removed from the date of our meeting, the latest general statistics of Sunday School work, as they come to us from the report of our Sunday School Editor, are a year old. In dealing with this subject last year, we predicted that the figures when made public would show that our Sunday School strength then was more than a million and a half. The report now before us, coming down to April 1, 1913, gives the grand total of enrollment as 1,515,073, thus justifying our prediction. While these figures are encouraging, the increase for the year covered is but 14,608, or scarcely more than one per cent. Our Editor thinks that statistics absolutely correct would show a much larger increase. We learn, unofficially, that the statistics for the year just now closing show the magnificent increase of more than one hundred thousand.

OUR LITERATURE.

We find in the high standard of excellence consistently and steadily maintained in all our Sunday School literature, great cause for satisfaction, and we take pleasure in according to Dr. Chappell and all his assistants the hearty commendation which their work merits. We again plant ourselves upon our oft-asserted position that there is no excuse for any Sunday School of our Church which fails to use the lesson helps and other literature issued by our own publishing house.

We likewise commend the efforts of the publishing house, and particularly of Brother E. E. French, the Superintendent of Sunday School Supplies, to put before our workers generally the valuable line of supplies, equipment and devices of various kinds designed for advancing our Sunday School work, and we urge a larger examination and use of these valuable aids to up-to-date work.

FIELD SECRETARY.

The Board congratulates itself and our workers as well upon the fact that we have been able to make arrangements to meet the demand for the appointment of a Sunday School Field Secretary which has been so urgent for the past several years. Brother A. L. Dietrich, formerly Superintendent of our Sunday School at Mt. Vernon Place Church, Washington, who has lately been sojourning in California, is about to return to the East, and the Board has been given the opportunity to engage him at a very moderate salary and, believing itself to be in possession of the necessary funds for the purpose, has voted to make him Conference Field Secretary from June 1st, 1914. He is thoroughly equipped for the work in all its departments, and we anticipate great benefit from his services.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

We are gratified to be able to announce that the officers of the Conference Sunday School Convention have made timely arrangements for that gathering this year and that their plans are well advanced. The convention will be held at Luray, Virginia, June 10-12. Dr. H. M. Hamill, Mrs. Hamill and other specialists will be present. Circulars of announcement, giving full details, will be liberally distributed at an early date. The programme will be arranged with special reference to the needs of Sunday School Superintendents, and we urge all our pastors to make an earnest effort to have their Superintendents attend.

OUR CONNECTIONAL VISITORS.

The Board has been especially favored at this Annual Conference by the presence of Dr. E. B. Chappell, Sunday School Editor, and Dr. Chas. D. Bulla, Superintendent of the Wesley Adult Bible Class Department, both of whom have met with us and given us the benefit of their counsel. We are gratified to learn from them that our leaders are anticipating a great advance in Sunday School plans and legislation at the coming General Conference, with a view to meeting the need for expert help throughout our bounds.

CHILDREN'S DAY OFFERINGS.

The employment of a Field Secretary gives us the occasion for again urging that all our schools observe Children's Day and take the offering prescribed by the Discipline, and that such offering when taken be promptly forwarded to the Treasurer of the Board, Mr. O. C. Michael, Aberdeen, Md. We specially call upon those of our people who have been urging the appointment of a Field Secretary to help us keep in the field the efficient and faithful man we have engaged.

Respectfully submitted,

W. W. MILLAN, Secretary.

CHAS. S. STANTON, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

We have received applications from 11 charges for $5,025.00. The amount at our disposal is $3,300.00, with which to meet these demands. The money asked for in most of the cases is urgently needed, and it is a matter of regret that we are so limited as to be unable to grant larger amounts.

We are coming more and more to recognize the wisdom of making donations contingent on the entire liquidation of the debt by the church receiving aid, or, at least, on the reduction of the indebtedness to a fixed point deemed to be within the ability of the local church. By this policy the number of those who make demands on the Board year after year will be reduced to the vanishing point. We conceive it to be the function of the Board to help the overburdened to help themselves, rather than to take upon itself the entire load. But if a church in its struggles to pay out can be stimulated by the offer of help from the Board, made on condition that it succeed in the struggle, then the donation has served a double purpose.

GENERAL BOARD LOAN FUND.

It has been the policy of the General Board since its organization, in 1882, to create and administer a great loan fund. It was declared that, "such a fund would be especially useful from the consideration that a large portion of the work we are called upon to do might be accomplished by temporary loans which, after serving once, come back and then go again, and repeat their work, and continue thus to go and come, reproducing their blessings year after year." The goal set at the time was a half-million dollars. The general secretary announced at the last meeting of the Board that the goal had been reached and passed, whereupon immediate action was taken for an aggressive campaign for another half-million. There are listed in the Hand Book 65 separate funds, mostly memorial, all of which taken together constitute the General Loan Fund, amounting at the last report to $560,000.

It is a just cause of pride to be able to report that the Baltimore Conference stands at the head of the list of Conferences in the entire connection in the amount contributed to these funds, having to her credit $63,659. The Louisville comes next with $47,018.

MEMORIAL LOAN FUNDS.

These wear the name of those whose memory it is desired to honor and perpetuate, and whose hands, though stilled, continue to build houses of worship. In some cases they are created by popular subscription in honor of public men, as in the case of some of our deceased Bishops and other prominent men; in others it is the erection of a monument by surviving relatives to the memory of a loved one; and still others it is the attaching of the name of the donor after death to a fund contributed in life, as in the case of our own P. H. Whisner.

This method of erecting monuments ought to become more popular with our people; for it not only honors the dead and perpetuates their memory, but clothes them with a peculiar power to continue their activities to the end of time in building up the kingdom of God in the world.

ANNUITY LOAN FUNDS.

Any one who intends to bequeath money to the loan funds may, instead of waiting till death, pay over to the Board during life the proposed bequest, with the understanding that he, or some other designated beneficiary, shall receive interest on the amount so contributed during the remainder of life. This is a very attractive form of benevolence to many people, in that it enables them to administer on their own estate and guarantees a fixed income during the natural life of the beneficiary.

CONFERENCE LOAN FUND.

The Conference Board may, at its discretion, set apart a certain portion of its annual income to be used exclusively and perpetually as a loan fund. Aid by loan instead of by donation is growing in popularity in many of the Conferences, as being the best kind of aid in many cases, and at the same time conserving the resources of the Board. The Conference Loan Fund is the same as the General Loan Fund in the end to be accomplished, the difference being that the former is controlled entirely by the local Board and exclusively for the benefit of local territory. The general office merely carries out the instructions of the Conference Board as the Board's agent, more efficient on account of office equipment and legal advantage.

We most heartily commend to the consideration of persons, who are looking for a fruitful investment of their money for the glory of God and the salvation of men, all the above-mentioned funds. We also urge our presiding elders and pastors to be on the look-out for possible contributors and draw their attention to this promising field of usefulness for their money.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LOAN FUND.

We again call attention to the privilege extended to the children of the Sunday schools to make birthday offerings for the creation of a fund to be loaned for the improvement of Sunday school equipment. Dr. W. F. McMurry will gladly furnish a jar especially adapted to receive such offerings, if the superintendent of any school will write him at 1025 Brook St., Louisville, Ky., and agree to place the jar in the school room for such purpose.

LITERATURE.

The Church Extension Hand Book, containing 500 pages or more, is full of information that ought to be in the hand of every pastor and prominent layman. Besides, the general office has many publications in the form of leaflets, folders and charts bearing on many phases of the subject. A catalogue of these appears on pages 520-522 of the 1913 Hand Book. Any or all the publications listed will be sent without charge to any one applying to the general office at Louisville, Ky.

REPRESENTATION.

We wish to record our appreciation of the growing interest shown in Church Extension at the District Conferences and other gatherings. Yet we feel that the time has come to carry the campaign of publicity beyond the few public gatherings to the many congregations. We respectfully suggest that the presiding elder has a fine opportunity, on account of his office, to present this claim on his rounds of the district, and with the co-operation of the pastors can secure results more in keeping with the worthiness of the cause.

We urge that Church Extension be given its logical place on the programs of all Missionary institutes, District Conferences and other meetings of like character.

P. W. JEFFRIES, Secretary.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY, HOME DEPARTMENT WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE BALTIMORE CONFERENCE, 1913-1914.

It is with much pleasure that we report a steady advance in all departments of our work.

Mission study classes are becoming more and more general. The question of Christian stewardship is occupying an increasingly prominent position in the programmes of our auxiliaries, and we believe in the minds of our members. Intelligent and deepening interest marks every phase of the work with which we have come in contact.

But the part of our work in which the greatest advance has been made is the Young People's Department. The increase during the past two years both in auxiliaries and members fills us with hopeful anticipation. While we fully recognize that the work we are doing is nothing in comparison with the work yet to be done, we feel, as we see the Young People's Auxiliaries springing up around us on every side, that the future is in our hands for God and humanity, and that what we will do we can do.

We report the following statistics:

Number of Adult Auxiliaries. . . . .	92
Number of Adult Members. . . . .	1,523
Number of Young People's Auxiliaries. . . . .	20
Number of Young People Members. . . . .	432

THE CITY MISSION BOARD OF BALTIMORE.

$732.71 has been raised during the year 1913 and judiciously expended, which is about $200.00 more than was expended during the year 1912. Two workers are employed; one as a deaconess and the other a lady, who serves in the capacity of a Pastor's Assistant.

These workers have paid 1,900 visits during the year and they have distributed 267 garments, valued at $92.00. In many of these visits the Bible was read and prayer offered.

$15.21 has been expended for the needy in provisions, coal, etc. At the holiday seasons, baskets were given valued at $25.00, which brought much joy and happiness to the recipients.

Two girls' clubs, with a membership of twenty-three and nineteen, respectively; one Mother's Club, with a membership of forty-five, and one boy's club, with a membership of twenty-five, are conducted. These meetings are held weekly and much interest is manifested.

The year 1913 has been a year of progress along all lines, and we are assured that the results have surpassed other years, for which we thank our Heavenly Father and faithful workers.

We are expecting even greater results for the future, for we are trusting in Him whose promises have never failed and who has said, "Lo, I am with you always even unto the end of the world."

MRS. R. G. MOWBRAY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

The report of the General Secretary shows a year of prosperity, especially in the development of Epworth League Conferences and the extension of its institute and assembly work. Twenty-nine Epworth League Conferences will be held during the summer and four assemblies, each having ten day sessions. These Conferences and Assemblies will call together about 5,000 of our young people in inspirational and instructional Conferences and are valuable for maintaining the organic consciousness of the League and promoting the organization throughout the Church.

It has been provided by your Board that a Baltimore Conference organization be effected during the coming summer, and a three-day session be held at some place to be designated by the Board.

These Conferences and Assemblies have been the occasion of calling into the Ministry and the Mission field a number of our young people, and a far larger number have consecrated themselves to Christian activities as laymen.

In our Baltimore Conference, we have reported this year 232 Chapters, with 9,871 members, who have raised a total of $5,960.00, $1,861.00 of which has been given to missions. Especial mention should be made of the Baltimore District Leagues in their endeavor to support a missionary in Cuba.

The gifts of the Leagues of our Church to missions for the past year amounted to about thirty-five thousand dollars, a gain of $9,000.00 over last year. The Cuba Special has resulted in the building of Candler College in Havana, thus supplying a great and long delayed need.

Your Board recommends that the Baltimore Conference Leagues continue their co-operation with the Board of Missions and the Epworth League Board in promoting the Missionary liberality of the Leagues by assuming the support of Rev. S. A. Neblett, of Matanzas, Cuba. In order to assist the Central Office, your Board has undertaken the collection of the ten-cent assessment for this year, together with the anniversary offering, by which it is hoped that the income of the Central office shall be augmented and the needs of the Conference Board met.

We recommend the continuance of the arrangement by which the first evening of the Conference Session is devoted to an Epworth League Anniversary.

Both in our own Conference and throughout the Church, the Epworth Era is increasing in popularity and now better than ever supplies the needs of our young people's society for a working manual and a medium of communication. The circulation has steadily increased and now puts the Era upon a sound financial basis.

The Epworth League Board has during the past year under the authority of the General Conference, by which it is charged with special work for boys, organized "The Knights of Ezelah," which is proving a most effective means of doing helpful work with boys.

The Central Office has increased its equipment and provides a full line of supplies for all Departments of League work at low price. A substantial revival in the Junior League work is observed in many parts of the Church. Miss Ada Trawick has been employed to give her whole time to Junior League work.

The Silver Jubilee Convention of the Epworth Leagues of International Methodism will be held in Buffalo, N. Y., July 1st to 5th of this year; 25,000 delegates are expected. We trust that a large number of our Baltimore Conference Leaguers will be able to attend.

We express our deep appreciation of the helpful service rendered us during the past year by the Central Office and of the presence with us at this Conference of Dr. F. S. Parker, our General Secretary, and Rev. Marvin Culbreth, his Assistant. Our thanks are also due Rev. W. D. Keene, our Corresponding Secretary, and the Baltimore Southern Methodist.

Respectfully submitted,

JNO. PAUL TYLER, President.

W. D. KEENE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BIBLE BOARD.

Your Bible Board is pleased to note an increased interest of the Conference in this most important of all obligations resting upon the Church of God, viz, the placing among all nations and in the hands of every person, the Bible. This increased interest is evidenced by the larger contributions and the greater number of charges reporting the Bible collection taken.

We regret very much that some of our best city appointments as well as some country places report merely nominal amounts, and we request the pastors to do all in their power to arouse their congregations to a sense of the importance of this great interest and have them contribute freely to the same. We are pleased to learn from the American Bible Society's Agents that a demand for the Bible and the number of people reading it was never so great as at the present time, and that the Society is doing all in its power to meet this increased demand for the Bible. In view of the fact that its resources have been greatly lessened, by a most decided falling off of its receipts from legacies, it is the more important that the Church be liberal in its contributions. We offer the following resolutions:

1st. That an appropriate sermon be preached and the claims of the American Bible Society be presented and the Annual Collection as ordered in the Discipline be taken early in the Conference year, not later than Sept. 1st.

2nd. That the Presiding Elders be requested to speak of and emphasize the importance of the work of the American Bible Society, and exhort the people to contribute liberally of their means to the same, both at the Quarterly and the District Conferences.

3rd. That meetings in the interest of the circulation of the Bible, especially through the Bible Society, be held in each congregation, and that agents and others qualified be invited to make addresses upon the occasion.

4th. That all money raised be sent at once to the treasurer, Mr. N. R. Roberts, Summit Point, W. Va.

5th. Should there be sufficient reason for any congregation or individual contributing directly to an agent or organization, a receipt shall be taken and sent to the Treasurer of the Conference Board.

6th. Receipts from the treasurer for collections sent to the same must be sent or brought to the Conference Board at the session of the Conference as a voucher.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

REPORT No. 1.

Your Committee on Publishing Interests respectfully reports as follows: Believing that the Baltimore Southern Methodist is doing an excellent work among our people in bringing to their attention topics of vital interest to the church, we therefore concur with the requests of the Southern Methodist Publishing Co. that the Presiding Bishop be respectfully requested to appoint Rev. C. D. Harris, Conference Editor, and that the Joint Board of Finance be instructed to make the same assessment as last year for his support.

Respectfully submitted,

E. L. WOOLF, Chairman.

J. H. HALEY, Secretary.

REPORT No. 2.

Your Committee on Publishing Interests submits the following report:

One of the most vital questions confronting our Church today is what kind of literature are our people reading, and the kind of literature we find in the homes of our people.

We cannot too strongly urge upon our people, especially upon Methodist parents, to see to it that the children in the home have access to such papers and books as will encourage them to have a taste for the better class of literature and give them information concerning the Church of their fathers and mothers. The various publications of our Church afford such an opportunity to our people and at such reasonable prices that none need be without this means of instruction.

We are pleased to note from the report of the Board of Directors of the Baltimore Southern Methodist the healthy financial condition of our Conference Organ, and the increase in the subscriptions shows its growth in popularity among our people.

The censorship so consistently exercised in cutting out all objectionable advertisements, especially patent medicine advertisements, while resulting in financial loss, has gained for the paper a wide popularity among all Christian homes.

We heartily commend this policy of the management and request our preachers to call attention to this fact in their canvass for new subscribers.

The travel letters of the editor during his trip through Bible lands were much enjoyed by our people and have stimulated a deeper interest in Bible study. We also commend the editorial policy of the paper for its fairness, and yet firmness, on moral questions of such vital interest.

During the coming Conference year let every preacher lend his earnest efforts to increasing the circulation of OUR CONFERENCE ORGAN.

We call attention to the value of the Nashville Christian Advocate as a periodical which should have a larger circulation among us. It is indeed a periodical of which every Southern Methodist may well be proud.

Our Sunday Schools have the privilege of availing themselves of the best class of Sunday School literature to be found in any Publishing House, and we urge the use of our literature in all our Sunday Schools.

The attention of our Sunday School workers is called to the great variety of Sunday School accessories which our Publishing House is prepared to supply.

The Methodist Quarterly Review maintains its high standard and should have a larger place among us.

We would remind our people of the large variety of tracts and Missionary pamphlets which can be secured from our Mission Board and urge a larger increase in the circulation of the Missionary Voice.

From the reports of the Publishing House we see that there has been a steady growth in business.

It is especially gratifying to note the progress that our Richmond Branch has made, and we call the attention of our preachers and people to this branch house and recommend it to their patronage.

In conclusion we urge all our people to follow the apostolic advice: "Give attention to reading" and we would add especially to the study of the word of God, and such books as tend to develop a greater love for the Kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

REPORT NO. 1 OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

In view of the present efforts in the Legislature of Maryland to repeal certain existing laws concerning the observance of the Sabbath, especially in Alleghany County, there having been introduced in the Legislature, House Bill No. 933, the purpose of which is to legalize the selling of soda water, cigars, candy, etc., on the Sabbath:

We believe this to be an effort to secularize the holy Sabbath. As a Church which has in the State of Maryland a membership of about 11,000 and a constituency of about 30,000, with church property valued at about $600,000, we cannot guard too sacredly the Sabbath.

Therefore, Resolved, First, That we as a Conference wish to emphasize our time-honored position in regard to the proper observance of the holy Sabbath;

Resolved, Second, That we wish to enter our protest against any change in the existing Sunday laws in the State of Maryland.

W. M. COMPTON, Secretary.

J. ALEXANDER ROOD, Chairman.

---

REPORT NO. 2 OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Conference has already spoken on this important subject of Sabbath Observance in a resolution protesting against any change in the Sunday laws of the State of Maryland. What we need now is active co-operation with the agencies at work to safeguard the Christian Sabbath.

The Sabbath was made for man. It meets man's highest need. Around it has grown up our civilization and Christianity.

A true conception of the meaning and use of the Sabbath should be formed in the minds of all our young people.

Therefore, Resolved, First, That we use our moral and spiritual influence to train our people to refrain as far as possible from all secular pursuits on the Sabbath Day, and to keep the day sacred to the highest uses and deeds of mercy and charity.

Resolved, Second, That we protest against Sunday baseball, Sunday excursions, moving picture shows and other amusements that desecrate the Lord's Day.

Resolved, Third, That we commend the "Go to Church Sunday" movement whenever it is practicable, thereby to increase church attendance.

Resolved, Fourth, That we recommend that all our preachers preach to every congregation some time during the year a sermon on "Sabbath Observance."

W. M. COMPTON, Secretary.

J. ALEXANDER ROOD, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

The outstanding temperance event of the past Conference year was the presentation to Congress of resolutions asking for the submission to the people of the States in the Union for their ratification of an amendment to the Constitution of the United States prohibiting the manufacture, sale, importation, exportation and transportation of intoxicating liquors as a beverage. We hail with joy our entrance upon the final struggle of our Nation in throwing off the yoke of the liquor traffic, and pledge our earnest support to the program of the National Anti-Saloon League to achieve this much-desired end. We are gratified that our people in all the territory under our jurisdiction are in harmony with the movement, their readiness to support which is evidenced by West Virginia's placing herself in the prohibition ranks, the Legislature of Virginia submitting a prohibition amendment to the people to be voted upon in September of this year, and the abandonment of the local option bill by the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland and having introduced in the Legislature a bill for State-wide prohibition instead. Surely we are profoundly grateful to Almighty God for the phenomenal success that has blessed the efforts and prayers of all the co-operating agencies at work in the temperance reform movement.

In all great moral movements Methodism has always been found on the firing line. We are gratified to know that in the battle for prohibition in our territory Methodist preachers are leading in the fight. Dr. James Cannon, Jr., an honored member of the Virginia Conference of our Church, is the Superintendent of the Virginia Anti-Saloon League, and Dr. T. M. Hare, a member of the Ohio Conference of the M. E. Church, after seeing West Virginia safe in the victorious ranks of prohibition, has accepted the position of Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland. Naturally the foes of temperance will direct a merciless fire of venomous criticism at these men to weaken their influence as leaders. We therefore urge our people to disregard the shafts of hatred and abuse that are constantly aimed at our men and give them their loyal support.

We congratulate the Anti-Saloon League, which is the duly accredited agency of the Church for co-operating in the fight against the saloon, upon its growing influence and the increasing recognition of its efficiency even by its enemies. We hereby pledge the League anew our hearty support, and recommend that our pastors open their churches to the representatives of the League, giving them the opportunity to present the interests of the League to our people and to solicit funds for its support.

We rejoice to know that on July the 1st of this year West Virginia will begin to enjoy her emancipation from the liquor traffic, the people having ratified the Constitutional Amendment relative to State-wide prohibition.

The prospect in Virginia calls for our sincerest congratulations to the Anti-Saloon League for its success in securing the passage of the Enabling Act granting the people the right to vote on State-wide prohibition. We earnestly urge our people to co-operate with the League in this movement.

We record our approval of the action of the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland in abandoning the local option bill and introducing instead a State-wide prohibition measure, and pledge our unqualified support in the fight.

The Baltimore Southern Methodist is to be commended for its uncompromising editorial policy on the temperance question and for the wide dissemination of temperance news and facts through its columns.

We recommend to our pastors and people that only unfermented wine be used in the administration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

MEMOIRS

ANDREW MOORE CACKLEY.

Andrew Moore Cackley was born in Pocahontas County, West Virginia, May 28th, 1849, and died in Roanoke, Virginia, April 28th, 1913.

When but a lad his father moved to Greenbrier County, West Virginia, where he grew to manhood.

He was converted at an early age, and so clear and remarkable was his conversion that those who were present on that occasion predicted that he would be a preacher. Not long after that happy event God called him into the Ministry. He was happily married to Miss Annie Moomaw, of Petersburg, West Virginia, who preceded him to the heavenly home in the year 1901.

He was licensed to preach by the late Rev. W. G. Coe, then Presiding Elder of the Lewisburg District, and united with the Baltimore Conference in 1875.

He was ordained Deacon by Bishop H. H. Kavanaugh, at Alexandria, Va., in 1877, and ordained elder by Bishop J. C. Keener, at Front Royal, Va., in 1880.

He served the following charges during the years of his faithful ministry:

1875—Junior Preacher on Prince George Circuit, Md.; 1876—Junior on West River Circuit, Md.; 1877 and 1879—Jefferson Circuit, W. Va.; 1880 and 1881—Petersburg, W. Va.; 1882 and 1883—Frostburg, Md.; 1884-86—Waynesboro, Va.; 1887 to 1890—Lexington, Va.; 1891 to 1894—Martinsburg, W. Va.; 1895 to 1898—Falls Church, Va.; 1899 to 1902—Middletown, Va.; 1903 and 1904—Hyattsville, Md.; 1905 and 1907—Keyser, W. Va.; 1908—Ronceverte, W. Va.; 1909 and 1911—Marlinton, W. Va.; 1912 and 1913—St. James', Roanoke, Va.

He was one of the clearest expounders of the distinctive doctrines of Methodism that we have had in the Conference. He was at home with Arminian theology and loved, with passionate heart, the doctrines as taught by Wesley.

He was a man of unusual religious experience. The deep and abiding truths of God in the soul were so vital to him that he not only preached them, with joy and gladness, to others, but found rich and abundant peace for his own soul in the midst of life's responsibilities. Out of this rich treasury he brought forth, to those privileged to sit under his ministry, things both new and old.

No sacrifice was too great for this servant of God to make for the things he believed to be true.

The Baltimore Conference, in its long and honored roll of the heroic dead, has never had a more faithful son in devotion and fidelity to the high ideals that have characterized her in the past, than he.

He endeared himself to the members of the Conference by his purity of life and quiet, kindly manners. The young man, just entering, found in him a friend always ready with words of welcome and cheer. To grasp his hand and feel the genial warmth of his kindly smile was to press forward with renewed devotion in the work of proclaiming the glad gospel. By the gifts of nature he was a gentleman, every inch; and by the blessings of grace he was a Christian, thus culminating in this singularly beautiful and attractive life that noblest product of our religion, a Christian Gentleman—such was Andrew M. Cackley. His courtly demeanor and noble bearing, with gentle and smiling face as transparent as the morning light, made him a conspicuous figure in any assembly. He loved to preach the simple gospel of the loving Christ, and in the varied fields of his ministerial labors there are hundreds today whose feet he has led into that path whose ending is in the City of God. Wherever he labored he brought glory to the Kingdom of his Lord and advancement and victory to the Church he served.

Not only was he a faithful dispenser of the Word of God, but a most diligent and faithful pastor as well. He gave his very life to the flock over which the Conference had appointed him shepherd, entering like a beam of sunshine into all homes and hearts, advising and counseling; comforting and consoling all who needed his kindly ministrations. Goldsmith's description of the village pastor seems best suited to the faithful life of this under-shepherd of the Master's sheep:

"Thus to relieve the wretched was his pride,
And ev'n his failings leaned to virtue's side;
But in his duty prompt, at every call,
He watched and wept, he prayed and felt, for all;
And, as a bird each fond endearment tries
To tempt its new-fledged offspring to the skies,
He tried each art, reprov'd each dull delay,
Allured to brighter worlds, and led the way."

We shall not soon forget his devotion, through the years, to his invalid wife. He lived his life for her and counted no task too great or wish too exacting for her pleasure and happiness.

He was a sufferer for many years with what he supposed was indigestion, but not until he returned from the last session of our Conference to his home in Roanoke, did he discover that he was being slowly consumed by the ravages of a malignant cancer. He was not long in setting his earthly house in order and making preparations for an early departure to the City that lieth four-square, beyond the clouds, whose Maker and Builder is God.

He gave minute directions concerning the funeral and committed his soul to the Christ of Calvary, and calmly waited the coming of the boatman to bear him over the river where he might "rest under the shade of the trees."

His abiding faith and only hope for salvation were in the Atonement of his Lord. In this he trusted implicitly. Often would he repeat, to those standing beside the bed, the hymn he loved best and that, in a peculiar way, expressed his thought concerning the plan of salvation:

"My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name.
On Christ the solid rock I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand."

Like his Lord, he suffered the agonies of the dread disease to the end without taking opiates of any kind, refusing them at the hand of the Doctor. He wished to die possessed of all his ransomed faculties.

He died triumphantly in the faith he had preached to others. Wesley once said: "The people called Methodists die well." This faithful man died well because he had lived well. His brethren of the Ministry in the City of Roanoke, and the members of his immediate household were with him when the end came.

Brief services were conducted at the parsonage by his Presiding Elder, Rev. G. Dorsey White, assisted by Revs. S. T. Senter and J. Howard Wells, in the presence of the Ministerial Union of that city, of which he was an honored and valued member. His remains were taken to Falls Church, Va., where, at his request, his body was laid to rest beside the sleeping dust of his wife and only child. Services in Falls Church were conducted by his friend and former Presiding Elder, Rev. W. H. Woolf, assisted by a number of the Ministers of the Washington District who had known and loved him.

While he will never again respond to his name in the Conference, and while we shall miss him more and more as the years pass, we know where he is and where we, too, shall find him when the toiling days of our pilgrimage are over.

"Servant of God, well done;
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

J. HOWARD WELLS.

WILLIAM HENRY WOOLF.

Rev. William Henry Woolf came into the Methodist ministry out of the atmosphere and training of a devoted Christian home. His father's home was near Rectortown, Fauquier County, Virginia. Here he was born October 5th, 1852. He was too young to take part in the Civil War, but as a boy of ten to twelve he passed his childhood amid the excitement and unrest of that troublous time. At the return of peace he had the experience of assisting in the rehabilitation of the farm life, and the establishment of the new order made necessary by the changed conditions of the labor world. It was a time when every hand took part in the productive industry of the farm life. No where does the generous earth yield her increase more liberally or respond more quickly to industry and frugality than this region lying along the foot-hills of the Blue Ridge Mountains. There was hard work to be done, but there was also the inspiring ministry of the grand old mountains, the refining influence of the open-hearted hospitality of a country home, and above all, the uplifting power of the family altar of a consistent Christian home. Such conditions make men, and in them breed a passion for the culture of mind and heart. He was trained in this home for a noble career.

His education was begun under tutors in the home, and later he attended a school on land donated by his father, and built and supported by the neighborhood. Later he entered Randolph-Macon College with the special purpose of fitting himself for the ministry.

At the session of the conference, held at Alexandria, Va., 1877, he was admitted on trial. He passed regularly through the four years' training in the conference, being ordained a deacon at Salem, Va., March, 1879, by Bishop Wightman, and an elder at Harrisonburg, Va., March, 1881, by Bishop McTyeire.

His first four years he served as a junior preacher—1877 at Springfield, West Virginia, 1878 and 1879 at Hillsboro, Va., and 1880, Freedom, Md. March, 1881, he was sent as preacher-in-charge to Beltsville, Md., and was returned there in 1882. Two years later, on February 28, 1884, was consummated a beautiful romance which began while he was stationed at Beltsville, when he returned and married Miss Jennie Howell Magruder. God gave into their care four children, who are walking in the footsteps of their honored father.

His succeeding appointments were as follows: 1884-1886, Alderson and Ronceverte; 1887 and 1888, Lewisburg; 1889-1892, Linganore; 1893, Prince George; 1894-1897, Monterey; 1898-1901, Hamilton; 1901-1905, Falls Church; 1906-1909, Presiding Elder of the Moorefield District; 1910, Salem; 1911 and 1912, Presiding Elder of the Roanoke District.

At the conference of March, 1913, he was returned to the Roanoke District as Presiding Elder, but later was changed to take charge of the great interests of the church as Presiding Elder of the Washington District.

He died in Washington City October 5th, 1913, and was buried at Glenwood Cemetery in that city.

Across this span of years he gave unremitting toil to the church that he loved so well. His experience as an itinerant preacher covered all the phases of the work, and the demand of the church for his services led him onward from the most inconspicuous place as junior preacher to the fields of largest responsibility in the Conference. With unanimous voice his brethren of the Conference have said, "Well done, good and faithful servant," and we can but believe that the Great Head of the Church has admitted him into "the joys of his Lord."

Henry Woolf was one of that type of men who have made the Methodist ministry a great power in this country. Preaching the Gospel was his master passion. He had strong convictions. Not such as arise from prejudice or pride of opinion, but wrought out of his personal experience of the power and efficiency of the Gospel of Christ. In this sphere he had entered the realm of closed questions, and he did not fear to give his whole life to the propagation of this Gospel. He tried out in large measure the challenge of what God can do with a consecrated life. His preaching was always with a definite note of certainty. Many fields of human speculation he did not enter. The corollaries of the Divine Revelation he was willing to leave to minds more curious of the mysteries of life. His general information was wide, but his ministry was confined to the great self-attesting truths of the word of God. And so it was that his preaching was in demonstration of the Spirit, and with power. We may be sure that the Holy Spirit of the Great God used this man as his own instrument for the proclamation of the truth as it is in Jesus. In marked contrast with the sureness of his pulpit utterances, or rather it may be said, in the higher harmony of them, Brother Woolf was known among us for his quiet manner, and modest disposition. He was never obtrusive with his personal opinions. His whole nature shrank from the assumption of responsibility that was not put upon him by a divine necessity. Though in the latter part of his ministry he was called to positions of great prominence, his attitude toward such a call to duty was always with much misgiving as to his own qualifications for the task. It may be questioned if any other system than our own could have discovered and brought out the best of his life work. He did not know how to push himself. The question always before him was, "Is this God's will?" With this question settled he feared no man. He knew his own limitations, but he set no bounds to the use that God can make of a man who is fully given up to the divine will. One of the dominant notes of his ministerial career was his high sense of justice. No superficial offering of charity could be substituted for one moment for exact fairness of dealing. He held himself in this to the highest standard, and nothing more surely fired his soul with indignation than any exhibition of double dealing. The great question that confronted him in the exercise of every trust committed to him was, "What is it just to do?" He recognized this as the basis of all divine service. In the discharge of his duty as pastor or presiding elder he knew what it was to see the point of view of his brother, and all felt his intense desire to secure every man's highest good. He never stopped to consider his own interests when those of another were involved. We have had more than one example when he laid aside his own comfort and right to secure an advantage for another. His sense of justice made him fearless in the discharge of duty. He was of the moral fiber out of which heroes are made.

We need not dwell in this memoir upon the incidents of his personal life or ministry. This is the record of thirty-six years of faithful service, growing from year to year with increasing responsibility and care and labor. At last the burden was too heavy. His heart and brain quivered in pain under the weight, and God called his spirit home to rest.

-A host of souls brought into the light and liberty of the sons of God by his ministry will ever cherish his memory as sacred, and the church will feel for many years the touch of his devoted spirit.

JOHN POISAL HYDE.

John Poisal Hyde, D. D., was born in Annapolis, Md., January the 31st, 1836, and died in Clarksburg, W. Va., February the 17th, 1914, at the age of seventy-seven. His father was Frederick Custis Hyde, and his mother, before her marriage to his father, was Miss Jane Bruce Phillips.

Dr. Hyde not only enjoyed the advantage of a Christian home, but also that of a liberal education. He graduated from St. John's College, Annapolis, Md., in 1851, and as an evidence of his standing with his fellow-students he was elected valedictorian of his class. After graduation he studied medicine for two years under Dr. Rideout. But he gave up the study of medicine, in order that he might give himself to teaching, and the ministry of the Word.

We are not informed in regard to the date of his conversion. He entered the Baltimore Conference in 1860. After he ceased the study of medicine, and for two years before he entered the ministry, he taught a private school in Warren Co., Va. When the Civil War began, in 1861, he was Junior Preacher of the Moorefield charge in West Virginia. While here he was appointed Chaplain in the 10th Virginia Regiment, and served in this capacity until the close of hostilities in 1865. From this time until the session of the Baltimore Conference, in 1866, in Alexandria, Va., where this body united with the M. E. Church, South, he served the Church at Port Republic. In 1866 and 1867, he was appointed to the church in Woodstock, Va. In 1869 he served the Church in Romney, W. Va. At the Conference which met at St. Paul's, Baltimore, 1870, on account of impaired health, he took a supernumerary relation, and from this time until age and infirmity compelled him to resign, he gave his time and energy to the work of teaching.

From 1870 until 1874, he taught a private Academy at Brucetown, Va. In 1875 he established the Lonoke Seminary, at Martinsburg, W.

Va., which he continued until 1882, when he took charge of the Valley Female College at Winchester, Va., and continued in this work until 1902, when he resigned, and took a superannuated relation to the Conference, which relation he held up to his death.

The schools he conducted at Martinsburg and Winchester were under the auspices of the Conference, and ample testimony is had to the fact that the work he did for the Church in this capacity was of a high order.

During the time of his literary work, Dr. Hyde also preached as opportunity was given; and where he preached he left behind a wholesome impression on the minds and hearts of those to whom he ministered.

In 1864 Dr. Hyde was married to Miss Mollie Tanquary, who, with five children—William V. Hyde, Harry W. Hyde, Dr. Frederick Hyde, J. Newton Hyde, and Mrs. Charles M. Hart—survive him.

After Dr. Hyde retired from active life he located in Winchester, Va., where he lived up to within a few weeks of his death. The high esteem in which he was held where he lived and taught so long is shown in the testimony to his worth by the local press of the City, when the fact of his death was heard. It said: "The news that Dr. Hyde has passed away has caused widespread regret among all classes of our people. He had spent many years of his life in this city, and had been identified, in various ways, with the growth and development of the city, and there are many persons who regard his death as being little less than a personal loss."

Just before Christmas, Dr. Hyde left Winchester, with his wife, to visit their daughter, Mrs. Chas. M. Hart, residing in Clarksburg, W. Va. During the trip he was taken ill on the train, but continued his journey, and reached his destination much exhausted. A physician was summoned at once, and it became evident both to the doctor and the friends, that his condition was critical. He rallied sufficiently, after a few days, to take a short walk, accompanied by a nurse. During this walk he was stricken with paralysis, from which he never rallied. He gradually declined until the evening of February the 17th, when the end came, and he fell asleep in Jesus. On the Thursday following, February the 19th, his mortal remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Clarksburg, W. Va.

Thus has passed away another of the veterans of our Conference. Much could be written in appreciation of his qualities as a man, a teacher, and a minister of the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. But for those who knew him this is not necessary. "He was a man, take him for all in all." His life was gentle; and the elements so mixed in him that nature might stand up and say to all the world, "This was a man." We will miss him, but we know where he has gone. "Heaven opened wide her ever-during gates, on golden hinges moving, to receive him." There he is, and there we will find him.

ISAAC W. CANTER.

CLARENCE LA MARTINE KENNARD.

Clarence La Martine Kennard was born May 27th, 1863, and died March 17th, 1914.

Brother Kennard was married to Miss Mary Albaugh, of Frederick County, Maryland, in 1892. Unto them was born one child, Harold Clare, who now resides in Washington, D. C.

Brother Kennard entered the Baltimore Conference in 1884. He faithfully served the following charges: 1884-1887, Upper Marlboro; 1888-1890, Brightwood, D. C.; 1891-1893, Frederick, Md.; in 1894 he was sent to Frostburg for one year; 1895-1897, East Rockingham; 1898-1899, Shenandoah, and in the spring of 1900 he was sent to Hillsboro, where he served two years. In 1903 he went to Glen Wilton, where he wrought well for four years. In 1908, he was sent to Brunswick; 1909-1912, he served Howard with marked success; in 1912 Brother Kennard was appointed preached in charge of Chesapeake Circuit, where he was abundant in labors until February, 1913, when he was stricken suddenly while at his work and was compelled to ask a superannuate relation at the Conference of that year.

In all his relations with the Church he proved that he possessed the spirit of his Master. Brother Kennard did not seek the easy field of labor; gladly he served his Church and many will rise up in judgment and call him blessed. He was an honored instrument in God's hands in leading many souls to make a decision for Christ.

Brother Kennard was a good preacher and with the great, sympathetic heart and love for humanity which he possessed, he was a loved pastor. But in a special manner he was successful as a revivalist; the conversions under his ministry are numbered by the hundreds. He always reported conversions at Conference.

His good work under the guidance of the Holy Spirit continued until February 7th, 1913. After preaching three times, he was stricken immediately after leaving the pulpit at night. The following spring he was taken to New Market, Md., where he was tenderly cared for by loved ones and friends until his death, March 17th, 1914.

His funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. D. Mitchell, Presiding Elder of the Baltimore District, assisted by the writer and Rev. W. E. Miller, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; Rev. B. S. Ruly, of the Methodist Protestant Church, and the Rev. Dr. Boyden, of the Protestant Episcopal Church. All that is mortal of our Brother rests in the burying ground of Central Methodist Church, but his soul is at rest with the glorified saints, who have "served their generation, and have fallen on sleep."

May the God of all comfort bless those who mourn the loss of a fond father and a loving husband!

LOUIS R. JONES.

Rev. Louis R. Jones was with us in cheerfulness and a happy interest in all life's affairs until a recent date, when he passed from our sight, no more to be seen until the Resurrection morn; he is not, for God has taken him. He had but recently passed his seventy-ninth birthday, and thus had reached a good old age.

Some months ago he had a light stroke of paralysis from which he gradually recovered; but on the 24th of March, at the breakfast table, he had a second stroke, and a few days later a third stroke, which resulted in his death. Anticipating the approach of the end, he had made every arrangement for the same.

Brother Jones was the son of Washington B. and Sarah A. Jones, and was born in Baltimore City, February 25th, 1835. His education was secured in the Baltimore City schools, and he became a "clerk in the wholesale grocery house of the well-known firm of Levering & Co., Commerce St."

He was happily converted and joined the Methodist Church at the age of sixteen years when a member of Wesley Chapel Sunday School, Baltimore City Station." While engaged in business he felt moved by the Holy Ghost to preach, but he resisted for some years. At last, however, he yielded and was admitted on trial into the travelling connection at the Conference at Winchester, Va., March, 1860. Bishop Simpson, presiding. This Conference began its session, Wednesday, February 29th, in the M. E. Church. The year before, 1859, Brother Jones traveled as Junior Preacher under the Presiding Elder, Dr. John S. Martin, and Alfred B. Buhrman, Preacher in Charge of the old Fincastle Circuit.

His first regular appointment after being admitted on trial into the Conference was to Salem Circuit as Junior Preacher, together with Rev. John C. Dice, Preacher in Charge. He was ordained Deacon and Elder at the session of the Holston Conference held at Bristol, Va., 1863, by Bishop Early. He was "compelled to go to the Holston Conference for ordination because of the disorganized condition of the church in our territory at that time." The following is a list of the appointments he served during his long ministry:

1860, Junior Preacher on the Salem Circuit; 1861, Roanoke Circuit; 1862-63, Christiansburg Circuit; 1864-65, Blacksburg; 1866-67, Lewisburg; 1868, Trappe; 1869, E. Baltimore Circuit; 1870, Taylor's Circuit; 1871-72, Hookstown Circuit (now Arlington); 1873-74, Reisterstown; 1875-76, Hillsboro, Va.; 1877-80, Bladensburg; 1881-82, West River; 1883-84, Milnes; 1885-88, Linganore; 1889-92, Brucetown; 1893-4, Bridgewater; 1895-8, Luray; 1899-1902, E. Rockingham; 1903-1906, Shenandoah City; 1907, Sudly Circuit.

At the end of this year Brother Jones was compelled to superannuate on account of being injured by the wheels of his buggy, his horse strating too soon. From the injury he never entirely recovered. He located in Luray, Va., where he lived until the time of his death.

Brother Jones was most happily married September 23rd, 1862 to Miss Mary E. V. Anderson, of Christiansburg, only daughter of Rev. E. R. Anderson. This union was blessed with six children, three daughters and three sons. Three daughters and one son, together with his widow, survive him. Rev. L. R. Jones was a clean, high-toned, Christian gentleman, faithful in the discharge of his duties as a Christian minister, a good preacher of the Word, interested in all that concerned the life and well-being of the community in which he lived.

In his last days he loved to have his friends visit and talk with him in his home. A good man has gone to his reward in the "Better Country," and his memory is as ointment poured forth. His mortal remains were laid to rest in Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Baltimore.

It is hoped that our people will give a hearty response to the District Representatives and become members of this Society, enabling the Treasurer to pay the sum of at least $1,000.00 to the widow or children of any of our clerical members who may be taken from among us by death. Preachers pay $2 upon the death of a clerical member, who only are beneficiaries, while laymen, Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues, Missionary Societies or other organizations pay $1. One hundred and fifty-three new members were added during the year. The preachers are urged to present and urge the claims of this organization of our Conference upon their people.

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF

Conference Expense Fund.....	485.27
Total.....	$9,524.23

A comparison of last year's report with this shows an increase of about 350 in membership and $1,400 in contributions, and this in spite of the fact that scarcely more than half of our churches have organizations.

In the early days when there was so much opposition, the women asked "just to be let alone," that they might unmolested do their part toward sending the Gospel to their heathen sisters. That time is now long past. The three organizations authorized by the Church are the Sunday School, the Epworth League and the Missionary Society. Is it possible for a school or a league to prosper in which the minister takes no active interest? On the same principle, can the women make a success of their work if they have not the hearty co-operation and support of their pastor? It is generally conceded that the missionary church is the aggressive and successful church in all of its departments. Believing this, we beg the preachers of the Baltimore Conference to exert their influence to establish a Woman's Missionary Society in every church where none exists, and to inspire those already in existence to renewed life and vigor, impressing upon every woman in their congregations the duty of engaging actively in this most important "woman's work for woman."

EMMA V. PEPPLER, Corresponding Secretary,

Comparative Receipts.

Again the Table of Comparative Receipts is not submitted. In 1912 and 1913, the Conference territory was under a division into seven districts, and for the year ending March, 1914, under eight districts. To rearrange and tabulate appointments, so that a proper comparison could be submitted involved more time and labor than the information to be obtained would warrant. With the close of 1914 and 1915, it will be possible to submit a comparison with the year 1913 and 1914, which will require but little time, and should be entirely satisfactory.

MEMORIALS TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH.

(I)

Whereas, The work of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and that of the Conference Board of Missions are necessarily and vitally related, and that for securing the largest results the fullest co-operation on the part of each is requisite; and

Whereas, The General Conference has already made the President of the Laymen's Missionary Movement a member ex officio of the General Board of Missions;

Be it resolved, That the Baltimore Conference hereby memorializes the General Conference to take such action as to make the Conference Leader a member ex officio of his Conference Board of Missions.

(Signed) CONFERENCE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

(II)

That paragraph 108 be so changed as to read: "To see that the Districts be formed according to his judgment, provided that the maximum number of pastoral charges in each District shall be determined by the action of each Annual Conference."

(Signed) BALTIMORE PREACHERS' MEETING.

(III)

That paragraph 181 of the Book of Discipline be so changed as to include preachers coming to our Church from the Methodist Protestant Church, said paragraph when changed to read as follows:

"Provided further, that all ministers except those who come to us from the Methodist Episcopal Church, the British Wesleyan Church, the Methodist Church of Canada and the Methodist Protestant Church, be required to pass through a course of study prescribed by our Bishops for undergraduates," etc.

(Signed) BALTIMORE PREACHERS' MEETING.

(IV)

Paragraph 278: Omit all after "necessary," in line four down to "Conference," line eleven, and insert "they shall certify the same to the Presiding Elder, who shall suspend him until his case is disposed of as the Discipline directs."

Omit all after "time before," in line sixteen, down to "to enable him" in line seventeen, and insert the words "his trial," so that the paragraph will read as follows: "Paragraph 278—Ans. 2. If the committee, after hearing the testimony offered by both the accuser and the accused, judge a trial necessary, they shall certify the same to the Presiding Elder, who shall suspend him until his case is disposed of as the Discipline directs. The committee shall formulate a bill of charges and specifications against the accused, and shall present to him a copy of the same a sufficient length of time before his trial to enable him to make preparations for his trial. They shall also appoint some member of the Conference to prosecute the accused before the committee of trial."

(V)

Paragraph 279: Omit the words "by the committee of investigation" and insert "by the Presiding Elder," in line four, between the words "certify" and "to."

Omit in line eight "in not less than thirty days, or more than sixty days," and insert in lieu thereof "within reasonable time," so that the paragraph shall read as follows: "Paragraph 279—Ans. 3. When a member of an Annual Conference has been suspended, this fact shall be certified by the Presiding Elder to the Bishop having charge of the Annual Conference of which the accused is a member, and it shall be the duty of the Bishop, within reasonable time, to appoint thirteen elders to try the case, etc., etc." (rest of the paragraph to remain the same.

(VI)

Change Paragraph 280 to read as follows:

"The committee of investigation shall also cause an exact record of the investigation, including the charges, evidence and finding of the committee, signed by the president and secretary, to be transmitted to the trial committee. By this record and such other testimony as may be obtained, the case shall be fully considered and determined. But should the committee in investigation on any case deem a trial unnecessary, the Conference, if it differ in judgment from the committee, may appoint another committee to inquire into the facts, and report to the conference."

(VII)

Paragraph 282: Omit all after the word "suspended" in line fourteen, and insert "and tried as the Discipline directs," so that the Paragraph will read as follows: "Paragraph 282—Ans. 6. If the accused be a Presiding Elder, any three traveling Elders or Deacons of his District may, etc., etc., (through lines 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14,) and tried as the Discipline directs."

(VIII)

Add new Paragraph: "When a preacher is tried on a charge of immorality and the committee of trial shall find that this charge is not sustained by the specifications or the evidence, but that the preacher has been proven guilty of high imprudence and unministerial conduct, it may declare this fact, and subject the offender to reproof, suspension, or the deprivation of his ministerial office and credentials. A preacher suspended from office may at the Annual Conference next following the expiration of his term of suspension, unless he gives satisfactory evidence of repentance, be deposed without further trial by a two-thirds vote of the Conference."

(IX)

Add new Paragraph: "When a traveling preacher is accused of immorality and desires to withdraw from the Church, and so certifies in writing to the Bishop in charge of his Conference, the Conference may permit him to withdraw. In which case the record shall be, 'Withdrawn under complaints.' If formal charges of immorality have been presented, he may be permitted to withdraw. In which case the record shall be, 'Withdrawn under charges.'"

(X)

Paragraph 317: Add after the word "committee" in line two, "and shall decide all questions of law."

Omit ", and a" and insert ". A".

Add after last word of the paragraph, and before the period, the words "of fact." So that the paragraph will read as follows: "Paragraph 317—The Bishop shall preside at all meetings of the committee and decide all questions of law. A vote of four members of the committee concurring shall be sufficient to decide all questions of fact."

(XI)

Paragraph 320-C: Cut out whole paragraph, and insert new paragraph as follows:

"Paragraph 320-C—For a case to have standing before a committee on appeals the appellant is required to give notice at the time of his conviction of his purpose to appeal. He shall present to the Bishop who is chairman of the committee on appeals, and also to the representative of the conference a written statement of the errors complained of by him, and of the reasons assigned by him, and upon which he relies for a reversal of the decision, a reasonable time before the time of the meeting of the committee of appeals. The errors alleged must be within the record of the case.

"When the case is called for hearing, the appellant shall, either in person or by his representative, state the ground of his appeal, and he shall be permitted to make his argument without interruption so long as his defense is within the record of the case. &c., &c. (to the end of the paragraph)" then add: "Provided that all decisions made by the Bishop arising out of the case shall not be binding as law in other cases until reviewed and approved by the College of Bishops."

(Signed) F. J. PRETTYMAN.

(XII)

Paragraph 287: Add "Provided, however, if the gravity of the offense warrants it, without previous reprimand a committee of investigation shall be appointed who shall proceed as in a case of immorality, and the committee of trial shall have power to acquit, suspend or expel from the ministry."

(Signed)

H. H. SHERMAN.

H. P. HAMILL.

WM. STEVENS.

(XIII)

Question 1. Who shall compose a Quarterly Conference?

Paragraph 80—Ans. All the traveling and local preachers, including superannuated preachers residing within the circuit or station (whether without or within the limits of the Annual Conference to which they belong), with the exhorters, stewards, trustees who are members of the Church, and class leaders, of the respective circuits, stations and missions, together with the superintendents of Sunday Schools who are members of the Church, the secretaries of church conferences, the presidents of Senior Epworth Leagues, if eligible, and the Church Leader, and none others.

(Signed)

T. J. LAMBERT.

WM. S. HAMMOND.

(XIV)

Whereas, By recent ballot of over 400 laymen of the Lewisburg District, Baltimore Conference M. E. Church, South, only 3 favored the transfer of the Lewisburg District from the Baltimore to the Western Virginia Conference;

And whereas, The delegates of the two Conferences to the General Conference held in Asheville, N. C., entered into an agreement that upon the payment of $500.00 by the Baltimore Conference to the Western Virginia Conference for the extension of work in the bounds of said

Conference, all agitation regarding boundary line between the two Conferences should cease forever;

And whereas, Notwithstanding $546.00 was raised by the Baltimore Conference and paid to the Western Virginia Conference, we learn that the next General Conference will be memorialized to transfer the territory of the Lewisburg District to the Western Virginia Conference; Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, memorialize the next General Conference to make no transfer of any territory whatever from said Conference to the Western Virginia Conference or any other.

(Signed)

T. J. LAMBERT.
J. A. ANDERSON.
B. W. BOND.
H. C. FEBREY.
DAVID BUSH.

(XV)

We respectfully memorialize the approaching General Conference to request the Bishops to prescribe a course of study for candidates coming before the District Conference for admission on trial into the traveling connection (see Paragraphs 76-77, Book Discipline, 1910), so that this course of study for the District Conference shall differ from the course prescribed by the Bishops for admission on trial into the traveling connection given at the Annual Conference (see Paragraph 641).

(Signed)

FRANK A. TYLER.
J. A. KERN.

(XVI)

We, the members of the Baltimore Annual Conference, hereby memorialize the approaching General Conference to give the question of "Laity Rights for Women" careful, courteous and wise consideration, and take such action as in their godly judgment will best promote the glory of God and the coming of his kingdom.

(Signed)

H. H. SHERMAN.
WM. STEVENS.

(XVII)

To amend the Discipline so as to make the Conference Leader, provided for under Question 47 of the Annual Conference, ex officio a member of the Conference Board of Missions; the District Leader, provided for in Paragraph 79, ex officio a member of the District Conference; and the Church Leader, provided for under Question 30 of the Quarterly Conference, ex officio a member of the Quarterly Conference.
